Admission: Free, 50 maximum capacity—come early!

The mini-retreat: Do you want to know your angels and how he can help you be holy? Now's your chance! Deacon Andy will present a mini-retreat about angels – what they are, what their purpose is and their interaction with us, particularly in light of Lent. It is intended as time away from your regular routine to reflect and to get to know your or establish a relationship with your own guardian angel.

Tentative Schedule:

8–8:15 Introductions & Welcome
8:15–9:15 Basic Teachings
9:15–9:25 Refreshment Break*
9:25–10:25 Hierarchy of Angels
10:25–10:35 Refreshment Break*
10:35–11:35 Angels in Scripture

* Light refreshments/coffee available for donation to cover SEAM, 501-c-3 non-profit museum, costs

Notes (<http://shroudnm.com/docs/Angels-Mini-Retreat.pdf>) available for download/printing

All three talks will be video recorded and can be made available on DVD for $15 SEAM donation

About the speaker: The speaker is a Catholic Deacon, the Webmaster of SEAM website (iSEAM) & has been studying angels for the past year. He developed & refined this angel presentation through prayer, study & developing an ongoing relationship with his guardian angel.

About SEAM: Free Shroud interactive exhibit with a backlit, full-sized picture, the only VP8 Image Analyzer 3D on open, interactive display, NM Shroud research, history, science, textiles, etc.

Deacons Pete Schumacher & Andy Weiss (40 & 7 years Shroud experience, respectively) available to conduct Shroud presentations on-location tailored to the interests of your group. Presentations can focus on scientific, archeological, historical, religious, spiritual aspects. They can do a combined presentation & can lead on-location spiritual retreats. They will tailor presentation length to fit your needs.
