About the talk: The talk will focus on what we can see on the Shroud in light of Old & New Testament Scripture passages and the author's presentation of his own poem, a reflection on Old Testament passages of Christ's passion, death and resurrection, written in 1985.

About the speaker: The speaker is an IT Manager & Teacher with a Masters in Religious Education from the New Orleans Loyola University Extension Program & a Catholic Deacon. He has studied the Shroud since August 2009 and Scripture since he was in 1st grade. In early 2009 his good friend Pete Schumacher & his wife Susan founded the museum &, asked him to create what has become iSEAM, an online presence of this 501-c-3 museum. His study has challenged and changed the trajectory of his life. SEAM features a full sized picture of the Shroud of Turin, the only VP8 Image Analyzer on open, interactive display and a tactile model for the sight impaired, among many other features.
