

The Shroud: A Visual Gospel

Please feel welcome to prepare for Christ's resurrection with this talk. It will focus on the visual Gospel which is what the Shroud is: Dcn. Andy will walk visitors through prophetic Scripture passages describing Jesus' passion and the corresponding evidence on the Shroud image. He will also share his poem, written in 1985, The Quest of a Stranger, a reflection on prophetic passages of Christ's passion & death. There will be time for questions and individual exploration in the museum.

About the speaker: The speaker is an IT Manager, IT Teacher, SEAM president and webmaster & Catholic Deacon. He has a Masters in Religious Education from the New Orleans Loyola University and has studied the Shroud since August 2009 and studied Scripture since he was in 1st grade. In early 2009 his good friend Pete Schumacher and his wife Susan founded the museum and asked him to create iSEAM, the online presence of this 501-c-3 museum. His study has challenged the trajectory of his life and opened up new avenues of faith and activity.

About the museum: SEAM admission is free and features a full-sized picture of the Shroud of Turin, the only VP8 Image Analyzer on open, interactive display and a tactile model for the sight impaired, Shroud movies and many other features. Dcn Andy is available for on-site or distant location presentations and/or retreats on a variety of areas of study of the Shroud.

About the website: iSEAM provides a variety of information on the Shroud, from an original VP8 Image Analyzer slideshow verified by World renown VP8 expert, Dcn. Pete Schumacher & Shroud Presentation slideshow on Shroud history, photography, science, Scripture and other areas. The site also features original photographic work, analysis, links to many other first-rate Shroud websites and a picture tour of the museum for those who might want to “preview in stills” before they come. Till today, 2/11/2018, we have had 81,087 visitors to iSEAM from 109 countries worldwide.
