Deacon Pete Schumacher is internationally renowned for his involvement in the 3D studies and other research of the Shroud of Turin. He is the founder of Shroud Exhibit and Museum (ShroudNM.com) and appeared in the Discovery Channel documentary, "Unwrapping the Shroud: New Evidence". He was consultant to members of the STuRp team in 1978 concerning photography and other surveys performed during that "world's largest scientific investigation".

There is no admission fee. "Free Will" offerings will go (100%) to the non-profit museum, as listed in the OCD.
